BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submits petition of 18-2-15 received from Manchanahalli Venkatasubbaiya requesting the acceptance of a certain wet land, measuring 1½ acres, at Manchanahalli in the Yedatore Taluk and in addition Rs 200/- in cash for the performance, from the income derived therefrom, of certain sevas in the temple of Sri Rameswaraswami at Ramanathapur in the Arkalgud Taluk, and recommends the acceptance of the land endowment.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

L The land proposed to be endowed is a portion of S. no. 73 belonging to Venkatasubbiah under the old Nala in the Manchanahalli village, Yed Taluk, and is reported to be ~~in~~ an acre & a half in

2 The residents of Manchanahalli have

M given a statement before the Shekdar to the effect that there is no objection to accept the endowment in question -

N 3- The Dharmadarsis of the temple, to which the endowment is offered, have stated that the sum of Rs 200/- offered in addition to the land should be in cash and not in the form of a deed and that it should ~~be~~ be deposited in the local cooperative society to ensure regular payment of interest thereon, which they consider sufficient to cover the assessment on the land and the cost of selling the paddy from Manchanahalli to the temple at Ramanathapur -

*[The exact amount of interest to be got, the assessment to be paid & the cost of carriage of paddy are not specified]

4. The Brahmana Sanatanam and other Sevas (such as Abhisheka & archana estimated to cost about Rs 5/-) have, according to the statement of the Dharmadarsis, to be performed ~~from~~ out of the income from the land.

Sl. 4.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Serial No.

1) that the endowment may be accepted, as no other arrangement exists at present for feeding on the Kirthasnanam day during the annual car festival of the temple;

2) that the net income both from the land endowment and cash to the extent of Rs 200/- will be Rs 38-4-0, which is less than Rs 50/- in value -

3) that from the expenditure statement of the last 2 years, the average cost feeding will amount to Rs 52/- per and that the deficit may be made up by investing the cash in a Co-operative Society; and

4) that as the Donor himself has undertaken to supervise the santarpane himself, his offer may be accepted.

19. The Mg supdt has reported (Sl 1) that the income from the endowment is considered sufficient for the performance of the stipulated seves -

20. The points for orders are, the acceptance of the endowments both land & cash, which are of a Pridwat nature - The current saving Bank interest is 5% and so the the increase in the net inc of the endowment will be as 3-12-0, the total amount being Rs 62/. Even then this amount falls short by Rs 10 of the average expenditure. The amount being in the nature of a Pudwat, the investment of the amount in a Cooperative Society, as proposed by the Dy: Comr, is perhaps not permissible.

Submit for orders.

SD

There is no difficulty about the land which the donor is prepared to endow and execute necessary documents in favour of the temple. As for the cash endowment, investing it in a Cooperative society is not allowable & Govt will not manage such investments. If the donor is prepared to keep the amt in the Savings bank, the proceeds of the land and the interest accruing on the Cash deposit will be used for the services stipulated by him. May the Dy Comr be asked to ascertain if this course is acceptable to the donor?

To

Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

General Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.2065/Muz.354-15-3, dated 29-3-1915,forwarding for opinion,a petition,dated 28-3-1915 from one Venkatasubbaiya of Manchenahalli,Yedatore Taluk,request-ing the acceptance of his offer of an acre and a half of his wet lands in the Manchenahalli village and Rs.200/- in cash for the performance out of the income derived therefrom of certain sevas in Sri Rameswara Swami temple at Ramanathapur,Arkalgud Taluk, I have the honor to state that from his petition received with the above,it is seen that Venkatasubbaiya offers the donetion for con-duct of the santarpane in the name of his wife Parvathamma on the Thirthasnanam day during the Car festival of the temple annually. The Dharmadarsis of the temple and the Amildar of Arkalgud Taluk, who were consulted in the matter state, that no other arrangement exists at present, for feeding on the day in question and that therefore the present offer of Venkatasubbaiya may be accepted. I beg to state that I concur with them in their views regarding the conduct of the seva in question.

2. From the information available in the records, it is gathered that the land endowment would yield 6 kandies of paddy annually or Rs 48/- calculated at the probable market value of Rs 8/- per kandy that is reported to prevail during the harvest season. Assuming the interest on the investment of cash grant of Rs 200/- at Savings Bank rate of interest of 3½ per annum, the total gross income from the donation may be estimated at 54-4-0. Out of this amount a sum of Rs 16/- will have to be deducted for Kandayam on the land and other expenses and that will leave a balance of Rs 38-4-0 for the seva, and with refe-rence to Government Order No.651-60/Muz.552-10-5 dated 17th. September 1914, the seva will be one of the value of less than Rs 50/-.

3. The kharch patties of Santarpane conducted by Venkatasubbaiya himself at the place during the last two years go to shew that the average cost of feeding will amount to about Rs 52/- per annum; and it seems to me that the deficiency between the receipts and the expenditure may partly be made good if the cash grant be invested in more profitable concern such as in a Co-Operative Society.

4. As the donor Venkatasubbaiya has undertaken to supervise the santarpane himself, I am of opinion that his offer may be accepted.

5. The file of vernacular papers and the petition re-ceived with your letter under reply as also the subsequent correspondence ending with the Arkalgud Taluk Amildar's report No.66 dated 11 th.September 1916 on the subject is submitted herewith for reference.

To

The Muzrai Inspector in my

Sir,

With reference to your letter no. 900 of 16-12-15 recommending the acceptance of the endowment of a certain wet land and Rs 200/- in cash offered to be made by Manchanahalli Venkatasubbiah for the performance out of the income therefrom, of certain services in the Sri Rameswaraswami temple at Ramnathapuram in the Arkalgud Taluk, I am directed to state that Govt have no objection to the acceptance of the cash endowment, but that as regards the land, Govt are not in favour of accepting small endowments of land and taking up their management, which generally entails considerable trouble and is rarely attended with satisfactory results. In this connection, ~~the~~ your attention ~~of the Hon. Society~~ is invited to the Govt order referred to in page 68 of the Muzrai Manual.

The revenue records are returned.
